

MEMBERTOU VS. SYDNEY

The City of Sydney Standing Committee at a recent meeting were told that the services provided to the residents of Membertou were not satisfactory.

To date no street lights have been put up, no street maintenance given, delay on a $15,000.00 capital project, and poor Policing services. The Committee under the Chairmanship of Deputy Mayor Charlie Palmer reviewed the items to some extent and was prepared to bring these to the attention of the City's Department Heads.

The meeting was called by Chief Roy Gould as a result of a recent Band Meeting held at Membertou and the dissatisfaction expressed by the residents of the Membertou Reserve.

In attendance at the meeting were: Chief Roy Gould; Councillors Donnie Marshall, John Ginnish; Education Committee members and the Band staff. On behalf of the City of Sydney, Deputy Mayor Charlie Palmer, Aldermen James Lovelace, Elizabeth Vaughan and Vince MacNeil attended the meeting.
